YOUTH-SERVING ENTREPRENEURSHIP ORGANISATIONS value the inclusion of refugees in entrepreneurship education and modify their policy and practice to achieve it

EDUCATORS begin to engage with young refugees and channel the into appropriate entrepreneurship services/support for their unique needs/ opportunities.

EDUCATORS consolidate their knowledge of how to teach young refugees effectively based on intercultural principles. STAKEHOLDERS recognise and support spread of good practice in inclusive, intercultural youth entrepreneurship services.

Increase in the number of ENTRENPRENEURSHIP ORGANISATIONS providing high quality entrepreneurship support to young refugees.

Increase in the number of YOUNG REFUGEES with improved entrepreneurial skills, leading to:

- Refugee led business start ups
- Improved employment prospects
- Greater positive engagement in the community

YOUTH AND ENTREPRENEURSHIP SECTOR are more responsive to needs and opportunities of ALL young people in our communities.

YOUNG REFUGEES are enabled to fulfil their potential as financially independent, creators of value in society.
